Agape Dental Ministry

After hearing so much about the work of Agape Dental Ministry, it was a real privilege to see the work first hand with Becky Faircloth last week.

An inviting reception area greeted us, and the receptionist Liz was warm and welcoming as she ushered in patients and made them feel at home. The treatment rooms were equipped with everything that is needed to provide the best dental care to the people who come through the doors and every inch of space is used to the maximum use – who would have thought an X-Ray machine was the exact size of a closet?

The young assistants, who are fortunate enough to win a place on Idlewild Road, are assured the best practical experience they could want -as Becky says – ‘every moment is a teaching moment’.

Hygienists, technicians, dentists all working together to give the best treatment to those who are unable to afford dental care. The only thing missing is an oral surgeon so if you know anyone who would be interested in this ministry – please let Becky know.

Thank you for supporting this ministry with your prayers and through the Scottish Heritage Golf Tournament last year. I am so looking forward to visiting Becky and her team soon.

Congregations for Kids

This past week, CFK asked for drivers who would be able to deliver books to the foster families in the Charlotte area.

Six foster families received these books – simply as a way of reminding them they are not alone and have the support of organisations around them as they navigate, what at times, can be an emotional but rewarding journey. It was wonderful to be able to hand the book directly to Rachel's and Taylor's little girl, and I'm sure she will share it with her little brother.

CFK are always looking for helpers who can help with deliveries so if you feel this is something you could do please speak to Anne Tolland or contact Congregations for Kids at www.cfknc.org

Important

Thank you for calling the church office to make us aware when someone is in the hospital. We are certain that person and the family appreciates the visitation and prayers.

As a growing metropolis, the Charlotte area has 12 hospitals, and it can be difficult with HIP-PA privacy policies to call a hospital and ask if someone is admitted. To assist our Director of Visitation, Dexter Greene, please let us know which hospital the person is admitted.
