Presbytery Day of Missions

By Donna Moody,
Leader of SCPCPH's
Missions Ministry Team

On Saturday, March 21, I spent the morning with over 100 other Presbyterians from 31 Presbyterian churches around the Charlotte area. C.N. Jenkins Presbyterian Church hosted the Presbytery Day of Missions.

The day began with breakfast and some activities to help us get to know folks from other churches. I met young and old from large, well-known churches to some I had never heard of.

After a few songs and a performance by a children's choir we began our work. We were divided into four groups to help out different missions organizations. Some went to Crisis Assistance and sorted clothing, others went to Beds for Kids and assembled furniture. The other two groups stayed on site and prepared sandwiches and snack bags for Roof Above. A personal note was added to each bag. I was in the group making sandwiches. Every person that comes to Roof Above for assistance gets 2 sandwiches and a snack bag when they leave. I learned that Roof Above does more than just house homeless in churches for an evening (like we do).

The day ended with a delicious lunch from Midwood BBQ, closing comments and prayer. I must admit, I wasn't sure about spending my Saturday morning doing this. I love actually working on mission projects but the "meeting new people" from other churches made me a bit reluctant. But it was truly amazing to see all of the different churches, with congregations different from us, come together for a common good....and enjoy it!!!

Congregations for Kids

By Anne Tolland,
Director of Missions Development

The Easter delivery from Congregations for Kids comprised of Bunny Rabbits – not real live ones – which would have been difficult to control in the car – but fluffy snuggly toys for the foster children in our area.

The joy these deliveries bring is indescribable so if you have a spare afternoon do sign up to help in this outreach.

This month is also an opportunity for us as a congregation to get involved with the Pinwheels on Wheels project.

The pinwheel is a symbol of a stable, healthy, protected childhood. By planting pinwheels around our city, we can create awareness and remind our community that eve- ry child deserves a safe, supported place to grow.

We plan to have fluttering pinwheels planted around our church campus where they will remind us and passersby about the need for foster homes, social workers and wraparound care for foster children and their families.

First Presbyterian Bell Tower Ringers Handbell Festival 2026

by Sarah Harkey

The SCPCPH Handbell Choir, known as the Steele Creek Ringers, recently attended a festival in Salisbury, NC, joining about 78 ringers from 10 different groups. Fifty-eight of those ringers, including our own, took on the challenge of practicing “The Triumph Song of Life,” an arrangement by Brian Childers, who also led the workshop. This lively piece featured changing time signatures, off-beat syncopations, triplets, malleting, martellatos, and energetic bell shaking!

We learned and practiced six handbell songs in total. When we arrived on Friday evening, we set up the handbells, tables, and cushions in the church building and then proceeded directly into our challenge piece practice for the next two hours, finally wrapping up at 9 PM.

On Saturday, everyone came together to enjoy fellowship and a breakfast hosted by First Presbyterian Church of Salisbury. Following, we started rehearsing all the songs, aiming for perfection. The weekend wrapped up with an open concert at 4 PM on Saturday, where we performed the pieces for an audience.

We’d like to thank Dexter Greene especially for helping to transport our equipment in his truck when the van broke down. He certainly wasn't playing any bells but was willing to help all of us!! Everyone who attended the festival would agree it was an incredibly exciting and unforgettable musical adventure!

George W. Davis

December 20, 1931 - March 23, 2026

CHARLOTTE – George W. Davis, born December 20, 1931, in Robbins, North Carolina, passed away peacefully on Monday, March 23, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of hard work, faith, and love for his family.

George grew up in Robbins and Pinehurst, North Carolina, the oldest of seven children with three brothers and three sisters. From an early age, he learned the value of hard work, delivering newspapers by bicycle seven days a week and later working at a local grocery store, where he helped deliver goods to customers.

In 1953, George was drafted into the United States Army and proudly served his country. He attended mechanical school at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, before being stationed in Korea, where he served as a staff sergeant and worked closely with a colonel. He returned home with honor following his service.

In 1955, George married the love of his life, Betty Seawell Davis, beginning a lifelong partnership of 71 years built on devotion and family.

In 1956, George moved to Charlotte, North Carolina, where he began working at Douglas Aircraft. Committed to advancing his skills, he attended school at night to study tool engineering. After Douglas closed, he continued his career with Duff-Norton and later with Pelton Crane, where he worked as a tool engineer for 19 years.

George was also an entrepreneur, starting his own business, Al Davis Machining, which he successfully operated for over 40 years.

He had a deep love for travel and adventure, traveling extensively and enjoying more than twenty cruises to destinations around the world.

In 1965, George moved to Lake Wylie, where he enjoyed many years on the water with his boats and Sea-Doos, making lasting memories with family and friends.

George was a man of strong faith and service. He served as a deacon and elder in his church, chaired the missions committee for many years, and was involved in finance and child development boards. He participated in multiple mission trips, including trips to Mexico and Jamaica, and remained dedicated to serving others throughout his life.

He was also active in his community, serving as an assistant scoutmaster and helping lead youth on trips and activities, always investing in the next generation.

George will be remembered as a devoted husband, loving father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, as well as a hardworking businessman and a man of deep faith who lived life with purpose and integrity.

Hannah Maurer

March 15, 1925 - March 20, 2026

March 20,
2026

CHARLOTTE -
Hannah Cowen Melton Maurer went to be with our Lord early Friday morning,
March 20,
2026.

She was born on March 15, 1925 on a farm in Golden Valley (Rutherford County), the daughter of Douglas and Myrtle Melton. She grew up helping on the farm along with her two brothers and three sisters. Hannah graduated from Sunshine School and went to Pfeiffer University in the fall. She was so homesick for her family, she left after one semester and moved to Charlotte to live with her sister and attend business school. After finishing, she began work and moved to a boarding house where she met the love of her life - J.P. Maurer, Uncle Butch. They were married in 1947 at a Presbyterian Church in downtown Charlotte. She wore a beautiful dress her sister Eloise made her.

She worked for Radiator Specialty for over 50 years and retired as payroll manager.

Hannah and Butch joined Westover Hills Presbyterian and attended until it closed in 2003. They moved their membership to Steele Creek Presbyterian Church but kept a relationship with her Westover Family attending the "Westover Leftovers" luncheon every month.

Hannah was the kindest, sweetest, and most dignified lady you would ever know. She was the very definition of "class"! Hannah and Butch were a loving couple who were generous to all her nieces and nephews.

We celebrated her 101st Birthday on Sunday and she was her unique, funny self for family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her husband Butch, her parents, two brothers Foy and Preston Melton, and two sisters Eloise Stilwell and Loretta Lemmond.

She is survived by her sister Margaret Cline Wert and many nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews and great-great nieces and nephews. Hannah loved those children.

Memorials may be sent to Steele Creek Presbyterian Church at Pleasant Hill, 15000 York Road, Charlotte, NC 28278 or Golden Valley Church, PO Box 441, Bostic NC 28018.
